Masks Reserved for Patient Use

If you have a cough, cold, respiratory symptoms, or are immunocompromised, ask the service desk for a mask.

The flu, and the virus that causes COVID-19, have limited the global supply of masks and other personal protective equipment. To protect patients we are conserving supplies. Thank you for helping protect our community.