

Phase One: What can and can't reopen

This list clarifies Gov. Steve Bullock's directive on which businesses can and can't be open during Phase One of the state's reopening plan

Six-foot physical distancing required, gatherings limited to 10 people or less

Reopened:

- Main Street Business, retail & professional services
- Salons, massage, body art & personal care services
- Organized youth activities, including gymnastics, dance, vacation Bible schools, softball & baseball, with appropriate physical distancing & sanitation
- Pre-schools & child care facilities that follow April 1, 2020 child care directive
- Outdoor recreation, check status of closures & restrictions
- Places of Worship

Remain Closed

- Fitness facilities, including gyms, pools, hot tubs, yoga studios & boutique fitness studios
 - Recreational facilities, including trampoline parks, roller skating rinks & ice rinks
 - Auctions held in person, rather than online or via telephone
 - Rodeos, indoor & outdoor
- (These are considered "places of assembly" and not permitted at this time)

Reopening May 4th:

- Restaurants, coffee shops, bars, breweries, distilleries, casinos open to in-house customers, 50% capacity; 6 to table; no drinking at the bar; no drink refills; no self-service buffets

